Annesley,
Aigburth.

very sincerely for kindly sending us your very interesting memorial of our dear and valued friend George Thompson.
His death recalls many episodes of the Anti-Slwhich he and you, do valiantly battled for the oppressed and downtrodden, ah first through fierce and cruel opposi-tion, but in the end with the blessing of God on your efforts, with complete suc-cess. Other fortunes which still exist will doubtless yield as these have done if those now in the field are addressed hearted and courageous as their predecessors have been. We often look back with much pleasure on the time that you and your dear sweet children and if we were not growing old, we should hope for a renewal of the gratification

I am sending by this post-
"the life of Catherine of Siena" by our dear friend Mrs Butler.
It being written by her I felt have great interest for on-
And as the history of an originally obscure young woman who from infinite devotion & what she believed to be a divine call reached a position such as scarcely any woman ever attained there is much in Catherine
